The DD Tarp 3.5 x 3.5 is the perfect choice for getting the most versatility out of your tarp shelter. It provides full waterproof protection across a large area whilst remaining compact enough for easy set up within dense woodlands. As a ground shelter, the DD Tarp 3.5 x 3.5 can be set up in a huge amount of configurations easily. Whether used with a cord ridgeline between trees, bivi-style with poles, or as an awning or lean-to, there is ample coverage for 2 - 3 people, or a spacious solo camp with plenty of room for equipment.

Full stormproofing comes from 3,000mm rated 190T Polyester, with taped seams across the entire product. Combined with 19 very strong reinforced attachment points, the result is a tarp that can withstand tough conditions and demanding expeditions across the globe.
